

Encuentro Juvenil de Estudios Étnicos

26 de Mayo | 8:30am-3pm | PCC Rock Creek

La 4ta Conferencia Juvenil de Estudios Étnicos, hospedado por Portland Community College, Rock Creek Campus, centraliza las investigaciones y el arte de jóvenes grados 6-12. Este encuentro sirve como un puente conectando a personas, generaciones, instituciones y geografías. Sobre todo, es una plataforma para la voz de los jóvenes en un ambiente de apoyo tocando temas incluyendo:

- arte
- testimonios
- justicia social
- salud
- derechos de la mujer
- derechos de migrantes
- derechos de la comunidad LGBTQ
- educación
- violencia estatal
- falta de equidad económica
- la supremacía blanca

Portland Community College Rock Creek Campus

Cómo participar: Estudiantes están invitados a compartir su arte o investigación relacionado a estudios étnicos antes del 15 de abril. Este encuentro es gratis y abierto al público.

Para más información: www.criticaleducators.org | gabriel.higuera@pcc.edu

Ethnic Studies Youth Conference

The 4th Portland Community College Ethnic Studies Youth Conference, in partnership with Pacific University's College of Education and Portland State University's School of Gender, Race, and Nations, is a platform that centers middle and high school student art, testimonies, and research on the pressing issues of the day, including but not limited to environmental justice, health and healthcare, women's rights, LGBTQ+ rights, immigrant, migrant, and refugee rights, education, art, youth rights, state violence, economic equity, and white supremacy. This conference bridges communication between and among people, connecting age groups, institutions, and geographies. Free and open to the public, this gathering is a platform for youth voices in a supportive environment.

WHERE: Portland Community College, Rock Creek Campus

WHEN: Friday, May 26th, 8:30am-3pm

WHY: To connect youth, advocates, research, & art

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE:

Participating youth will give presentations of about 15 minutes (per group). Panels will be grouped by theme and moderated by educators, scholars, and community leaders. Presentations are followed by supportive discussion / question and answer periods.

Participation is free and open to the public.

Light breakfast and lunch provided. Conference preparation support is available for teachers and youth leaders. Limited transportation support available for schools.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

1. Middle and high school teachers, counselors, and administrators, those in arts, civic, and cultural organizations, community groups and families are encouraged to share this opportunity with the youth they serve.
2. Share brief descriptions of arts and presentation topics by April 15th.

Portland Community College Rock Creek Campus

For more information visit the "Youth Conference" tab at www.criticaleducators.org

The Portland Community College Ethnic Studies Youth Conference is supported in part by the Oregon Community Foundation