

---

If I were to receive a scholarship I came to the conclusion that I would use it to buy a computer that can run more demanding programs that a laptop simply cannot...with a decent computer I should be able to do work with similar [Java Script] programs and explore my other interests in Technology such as coding.

-Hillsboro High School Student

---

